

RE-RFP DESIGNATED PILOT PROGRAM RECOMMENDATIONS
	Organization Name	Program Name & Description	Commission directed Designated Strategy & Desired Outcomes	Linkages and Collaboratives	Request	Recommend	Notes
1	Stanislaus County Sheriff's Dept for Stanislaus Drug Enforcement Agency	The Drug Endangered Children Program will ensure that 25 local children between the ages of 0 to 5, who are removed from clandestine laboratory environments will receive proper medical care and will be placed in homes where they can thrive. Proper follow up will be provided.	Drug Endangered Children Program: 1. Mitigation of prevention of drug lab exposure for children	The Stanislaus Drug Enforcement Agency, Stanislaus County Child Protective Services, University of California Davis Medical Center, Family Psychology Center	$ 50,000.00	$50,000.00	This program is in alignment with the Commission's Designated Strategy in preventing drug lab exposure for children. The program provides strong collaborations with intrical agencies such as the Stanislaus Drug Enforcement Agency, Stanislaus County Child Protective Services, University of California, Davis Medical Center, Family Psychology Center. The majority of the budget request is to be used directly for medical and pyschological examinations of the targeted children.
2	Stanislaus County Office of Education	Por La Vida De Los Niños (For the Life of the Children) Program is a comprehensive eight week parenting program with an emphasis on Teen Pregnancy Prevention. The program targets 20 pregnant/parenting teens and 90 Latino families. Teens will be partnered with a trained community mentor for a year.	Teen Pregnancy Prevention: 1. Teens will demonstrate responsible sexual behavior 2. Teens will not have an unwanted/unplanned pregnancy 3. Teens will not engage in or be exposed to harmful substances 4. Teens will attend school regularly and be at grade level 5. Teens will demonstrate responsible decision making and problem solving 6. Infants with teen parents will have appropriate nutrition	The Latino Collaborative, Healthy Starts, Riverbank, Hughson, and Newman Block House Programs	$ 50,000.00	$50,000.00	This program is in alignment with the Commission's Designated Strategy in preventing a second pregnancy in teens. The program targets the rural geographical areas of Riverbank, Hughson and also targets the Petersen Alternative Center for Education drawing from all of Stanislaus County. Strong collaborations include the Latino Collaboration, Healthy Starts, and Block House Programs.